

RURAL MUNICIPALITY OF CHESTERFIELD NO. 261

BYLAW NO. 10-2026

A BYLAW TO ESTABLISH A CODE OF ETHICS

PART I

GENERAL

1. Short Title

This Bylaw may be cited as the "Code of Ethics Bylaw".

2. Preamble

- (1) The members of council of the Rural Municipality of Chesterfield No. 261 recognize that their actions have an impact on the lives of all residents and property owners in the community. Fulfilling their obligations and discharging their duties responsibly requires a commitment to the highest standards.
- (2) The members of council recognize that the quality of the public administration and governance of the Rural Municipality of Chesterfield No. 261, as well as the reputation and integrity, depends on their conduct as elected officials.
- (3) The Council Code of Ethics Bylaw is intended to address matters of conduct not already addressed in The Municipalities Act and/or The Municipalities Regulations and/or The Local Government Election Act, 2015.
- (4) In the event of a conflict between this bylaw and provincial legislation, the provincial legislation takes precedence.

3. Purpose and Interpretation

- (1) The purpose of this bylaw is to outline basic ethical standards and values for members of council. It is to be used to guide members of council respecting what their obligations are when fulfilling their duties and responsibilities as elected officials. It also explains the procedure for filing a complaint, investigating a complaint, and enforcing these standards and values.
- (2) This Bylaw is to be interpreted in accordance with the legislation applicable to the Rural Municipality of Chesterfield No. 261, the common law and the policies and bylaws of the Rural Municipality of Chesterfield No. 261.
- (3) Neither the law nor this bylaw is to be interpreted as exhaustive. There will be occasions which council will need to adopt additional rules of conduct in order to protect the public interest and to enhance the public confidence and trust in local government. It is the responsibility of each member of council to uphold the standards and values set out in this bylaw.

4. Definitions

- (1) In this bylaw:
 - a) Act: means The Municipalities Act.
 - b) Administrator: means the individual appointed by Council to the position of administrator pursuant to section 110 of The Municipalities Act.
 - c) Complainant: means an individual/organization/municipal employee, or member of council seeking remedial action.
 - d) Confidential Information: means information that a council member has a legal duty not to disclose.

- e) Designated Officer: means a person designated by council or a person to whom power or authority is delegated by the administrator or, in the absence of a designation by council, the administrator.
- f) Members of Council: means the council of the Rural Municipality of Chesterfield No. 261, and includes the Reeve and each Councillor.
- g) Regulations: means The Municipalities Regulations.

PART II CODE OF ETHICS

5. Standards and Values

It is the responsibility of each member of council to uphold the following standards and values:

(1) Honesty

- a) Members of council shall be truthful and open in their roles as council members and as members of the communities they serve.

(2) Objectivity

- a) Members of council shall make decisions carefully, fairly and impartially.

(3) Respect

- a) Members of council shall treat every person, including other members of council, municipal employees and the public, with dignity, understanding and respect;
- b) Members of council shall not engage in discrimination, bullying or harassment in their roles as members of council;
- c) Members of council shall not use derogatory language towards others;
- d) Members of council shall treat people with courtesy; and
- e) Members of council shall recognize the importance of the different roles others play in local government decision making.

(4) Transparency and Accountability

- a) Members of council shall endeavor to conduct and convey council business and all their duties in an open and transparent manner, other than those discussions that are authorized to be dealt with in a confidential manner in a closed session, so that stakeholders can view the process and rationale used to reach decisions and the reasons for taking certain actions; and
- b) Members of council are responsible for the decisions they make. This responsibility includes acts of commission and acts of omission.

(5) Confidentiality

- a) Members of council shall refrain from disclosing or releasing any confidential information acquired by virtue of their office except when required by law or authorized by council to do so; and
- b) Members of council shall not take advantage of or obtain benefits from information that is obtained in the course of or as a result of their official duties or position and that is not in the public domain. This includes complying with The Local Authority Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act in their capacity as members of council of a local authority.

(6) Leadership and the Public Interest

- a) Members of council shall serve their constituents in a conscientious and diligent manner and act in the best interest of the Rural Municipality of Chesterfield No. 261;
- b) Members of council shall thrive, by focussing on issues important to the community and demonstrating leadership, to build and inspire the public's trust and confidence in local government;
- c) Members of council are expected to perform their duties in a manner that will bear close public scrutiny and shall not provide the potential or opportunity for personal benefit, wrongdoing or unethical conduct; and
- d) Council members shall accept and accurately communicate the decisions of Council even when they disagree with Council's decisions.

(7) Responsibility

- a) Members of council shall act responsibly and in accordance with the Acts of Parliament of Canada and the Legislature of Saskatchewan, including The Municipalities Act;
- b) Members of council shall disclose actual or potential conflicts of interest, either financial or otherwise, related to their responsibilities as members of council, following the policies and procedures of the Rural Municipality of Chesterfield No. 261, and exercising all conferred powers strictly for the purpose for which the powers have been conferred; and
- c) Members of council are individually responsible for preventing potential and actual conflicts of interest.

PART III
COMPLAINT PROCESS

6. Informal Complaint Process

- (1) Any person who has witnessed or believes that a member of council has contravened the bylaw may advise the member that they are in contravention of this bylaw and encourage the member to stop.

7. Formal Complaint Process

- (1) To report an alleged contravention of the bylaw, the complainant shall submit the Complaint Form found in Schedule "A", personally or by sending the form directly to the designated officer by mail, email, fax or courier.
- (2) As soon as possible after receiving the complaint, the designated officer will issue the Receipt of Complaint Form, found in Schedule "B", to the complainant, personally or sending the form by mail, email, fax or courier.
- (3) Within 7 business days of issuing the Receipt of Complaint, the designated officer will review the complaint to ensure the following:
 - a) The Complaint meets the scope of the code of ethics bylaw; and
 - b) The Complaint form is filled out completely and in detail.
- (4) After review of the complaint, the designated officer shall within another 7 business days notify:
 - a) The complainant in writing that the complaint does not meet the scope of this bylaw or that the complaint form is not filled out completely. If applicable, the designated officer will direct the complainant to another process for addressing the complaint; or
 - b) The complainant in writing that the complaint meets the requirements of this bylaw; and

- c) The alleged council member or council members in writing that a complaint has been filed pursuant to this bylaw.
- (5) At the next Council meeting, upon being informed by the designated officer, council will acknowledge by resolution that a code of ethics complaint has been filed and will initiate the investigation process, council will determine how the investigation will be conducted by either Investigation Option 1 or Investigation Option 2 in accordance with this bylaw.
- (6) Following council's resolution the designated officer shall inform all parties of the following:
 - a) Who will be investigating the complaint;
 - b) The investigation process;
 - c) When the investigation will be initiated; and
 - d) How the investigation's findings will be communicated.

8. Investigation – Option 1: Council is the Investigator

- (1) Council shall establish a committee to investigate, report and to make recommendations based on the findings of the complaint to council.
- (2) The council member or council members who the complaint is made against shall not participate in conducting the investigation.
- (3) If the complainant is a council member, that council member shall not participate in conducting the investigation.
- (4) The investigation shall be done in a confidential, objective and impartial way.
- (5) The investigation must, as is reasonably possible, protect the names of all parties involved.
- (6) The investigative committee shall review the complaint and clarify any information with the complainant, if required.
- (7) The investigative committee shall serve a copy of the complaint and supporting documents to the alleged council member or council members and request a written response to the claim within 7 days of receiving complaint.
- (8) If the alleged council member or council members provide a written response, that response is to be provided to the complainant with a request for a written response within 7 days.
- (9) The investigation committee must verify the information provided from all parties, which may include speaking to anyone relevant to the complaint.
- (10) The investigation committee must determine what section or sections, if any, of this Bylaw was contravened.
- (11) When the investigative committee is satisfied that all the relevant information has been provided, they will prepare a written report summarizing the allegations, the findings and their recommendation as to whether or not the complaint is substantiated.
- (12) The complainant and alleged council member or council members shall be provided a copy of the written report.
- (13) The investigating committee will provide the report to council in a closed meeting.
- (14) The council member or council members who the complaint is made against shall not participate in the closed meeting.

- 411
- (15) If the complainant is a council member, that council member shall not participate in the closed meeting.
 - (16) If council is satisfied with the report from the investigation committee, in an open meeting, council shall pass a resolution stating that the complaint is either unsubstantiated or substantiated.
 - (17) If the complaint is unsubstantiated, it is deemed dismissed and council shall notify all parties involved of the following:
 - a) The reasons the complaint is dismissed; and
 - b) The ability to contact Ombudsman Saskatchewan if they feel they have been treated unfairly in the handling of the complaint.
 - (18) If the complaint is substantiated, council shall provide all parties involved the following:
 - a) The reasons for the substantiation
 - b) What remedial action or actions, if any, will be imposed as per section 10(1); and
 - c) Information about the ability to contact Ombudsman Saskatchewan if they feel they have been treated unfairly in the handling of the complaint.

9. Investigation – Option 2 – Third Party is the investigator

- (1) The investigation must, as is reasonably possible, protect the names of all parties involved.
- (2) The investigation shall be done in a confidential, objective and unbiased way.
- (3) At a minimum, the investigation must:
 - a) Clarify what the complaint is about;
 - b) Verify the information provided in the complaint is relevant and accurate;
 - c) Provide an opportunity for all parties involved to review the preliminary findings and to provide contrary and/or additional information that may be relevant;
 - d) Determine what section or sections, if any, of this bylaw was contravened; and
 - e) Summarize the results of the investigation into a written report.
- (4) The investigator will provide the report to council in a closed meeting.
- (5) The council member or council members who the complaint is made against shall not participate in the closed meeting.
- (6) If the complainant is a council member, that council member shall not participate in the closed meeting.
- (7) Upon the report from the investigator, in an open meeting, council shall pass a resolution stating that the complaint is either unsubstantiated or substantiated.
- (8) If the complaint is unsubstantiated, it is deemed dismissed and council shall notify all parties involved the following:
 - a) The reasons the complaint is dismissed; and
 - b) The ability to contact Ombudsman Saskatchewan if they feel they have been treated unfairly in the handling of the complaint.
- (9) If the complaint is substantiated, council shall provide all parties involved the following:
 - a) The reasons for the substantiation;
 - b) What remedial action or actions, if any, will be imposed as per section 8(10); and
 - c) Information about the ability to contact Ombudsman Saskatchewan if they feel they have been treated unfairly in the handling of the complaint.

4-11

10. Remedial Action

- (1) The remedial action or actions imposed should be corrective and progressive and have a realistic time frame for completion. Council should take into consideration the nature and severity of the violation as well as whether the council member or members has previously violated this bylaw.
- (2) The remedial action or actions imposed by council shall be decided by resolution, at a meeting open to the public. The remedial action may include, but is not limited to:
 - a) An apology, either written and/or verbal, by the member of council to the impacted individual or individuals, council and/or the general public;
 - b) Educational training on ethical and respectful conduct within a specified time;
 - c) Repayment of moneys/gifts received;
 - d) Removal of the member or members from council committees and/or bodies;
 - e) Removal of the member from a position of chairperson of a committee and/or bodies;
 - f) Suspension of the council member or members of council, in accordance with The Municipalities Act and The Municipalities Regulations; and
 - g) Any other remedial action that council deems reasonable and appropriate in the circumstances provided that the sanction does not prevent the member or members of council from fulfilling the legislative duties of a member or members and the sanction is not otherwise contrary to law.
- (3) Failure to comply with the course or courses of action set out by council may lead to further remedial action and possibly to suspension.

11. Dispute Resolution

- (1) If Council believes it to be desirable, council may offer the parties to a complaint an opportunity to mediate the complaint.
- (2) Mediation must be agreed upon by all parties.
- (3) Mediation shall be handled by a neutral third-party who has experience in the mediation process.
- (4) Mediation shall be confidential.

PART IV MISCELLANEOUS

12. Miscellaneous

- (1) This bylaw shall also apply to members of committees, boards, controlled corporations and other bodies established by council who are not members of council.

COMING INTO FORCE

13. Coming Into Force

- (1) That Bylaw No. 2/2017 is hereby repealed.
- (2) This bylaw shall come into effect on the day of its final passing.
